

News From Other Towns

NARROWS.

The truckers are proud to see this settled weather. The past two weeks of unsettled weather damaged our beans, but planting is the order of the day.

F. C. Poppell, G. K. Sheffield and J. T. Jenkins went to Fort Pierce one day last week. They went down in Mr. Jenkins' launch and report a good time.

Mrs. John Cochran has been quite sick, but we are glad to note that she is much better at this writing.

Mrs. Woodie Fletcher, who has been suffering for some time from her serious accident, is improving.

Mrs. D. B. Sheffield has been suffering during the past week with nervous affection and fever, but is much better at this time.

Aunt Nancy McCullors and Mrs. J. E. W. McCullors and children came up to Johns Island Saturday. Mrs. J. E. W. and children to spend the night with her parents, Elder D. B. Sheffield and wife; Aunt Nancy to see her grandchildren at Mr. Melvin Mathers'. Their father, J. M. McCullors and family were over Sunday from Quay and spent the day with J. T. Jenkins and wife.

Mr. Church was on the Island Sunday near the house of refuge.

F. C. Poppell and D. C. Cox, of Quay and their choir did some fine singing at Indian River church Sunday evening. Next Saturday and Sunday are regular preaching days at the church and they have agreed to sing both days. All who love good singing and good gospel preaching should attend, for Indian River church can boast of both. It makes one's heart flutter for joy to listen to the sweet singing and cheers the drooping spirits of God's children to hear the gospel of their salvation preached.

Mrs. George Beal, of Stanwood was down on the Island Saturday and spent the night with her sister, Mrs. O. K. Sheffield.

VERO

School closed Friday, after a very successful term and Mr. Geiger left on the midnight train for his home at Lotus for a weeks visit before going to Fort Drum, where he has a school.

N. O. Peony spent Sunday with his family in Melbourne.

The farmers are busy getting ready for the winter crops.

L. D. Jandreau is preparing land to set an orange and grapefruit grove.

O. Roach is having several acres of land cleared and intends putting in a crop of Irish potatoes.

TIBBALS

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Andrews came up from Palm Beach on Wednesday to look after their pineapples, shipping sixty-drs crates and returning to Palm Beach on Thursday, accompanied by his mother, who will spend several days with her granddaughter, Mrs. Fred Cook.

Mrs. Maud Richards was calling on friends at Tibbals on Thursday and Saturday.

Lane Jennings is the happy owner of a fine bicycle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris returned home Saturday eve after spending several months in the north. They are both looking well.

The Tibbals Country Club received a magnificent punch bowl and glasses to match on Saturday from Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Sutton, of Lancaster, Ohio. They came in fine condition and the club members appreciate the gift very much.

Rev. Dr. Moore held services in the Episcopal church on Sunday morning with a very appreciative audience. All were very favorably impressed with the Dr. and his good wife.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McCarty, from Eldred, were visitors at Tibbals on Sunday evening.

Mrs. W. W. Lane and son Marshall and Mrs. Laura Baker spent Sunday with Mrs. E. J. Luce.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer and daughter, Miss Florence, drove down to Tibbals from Fort Pierce on Sunday.

Mr. J. T. Waters made a shipment on Monday of 143 crates of fine pineapples, which is very large for this time of year.

Capt. Andrews has been quite indisposed for a few days.

JENSEN.

Mrs. Peter Frederickson has been seriously ill this week.

James Neal returned Thursday of last week from Seville, Fla.

John Anderson returned from the north last week with his little boy. He will stay for Mr. Ricou.

Mrs. H. J. Shultz returned Sunday night from St. Augustine where she has been attending her sister during her illness.

The Hardee-Bray trial at Fort Pierce Tuesday drew quite a crowd from Jensen. Among the number were: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bray, Messrs I. W. Whitney, W. N. Cook, E. C. B. Tyn-dall, J. H. Baker, F. Trice, R. E. Ricou, Dr. N. McClinton and Mr. Mosier.

Col. Thompson of New York came up from Miami on the last train Friday night. As his time was very limited he left the next day on the morning train.

The heavy frost Tuesday night gave the truck growers quite a scare but no damage was done.

The piano in the town hall has been tuned lately and the sounds that issue from its doors from morn till night are now more melodious.

R. D. Hoke is having a pleasant visit from his brother and nephew this week.

Mr. C. F. Wolf was out hunting in the back woods Tuesday with his bird dogs.

There was service at All Saints church last Sunday and a good many people were out as the school wagon made a trip to the church picking up all who wished to go.

J. H. Baker took his family and a few guests to the beach Sunday in his launch.

D. E. Austin went to St. Augustine last week to bring home his wife and little boy. They have not returned yet.

Wm. Frederickson took a party for an "all day" at the beach Sunday. C. T. Heller and family and F. C. Davis and family were among the number.

R. R. Ricou sent a fine sea going launch to Miami Friday to serve as a run boat at his camps there. The boat was built by John Miller of Eden and is a good boat for that kind of work.

The Jensen Ice Works have been shut down this week on account of not having fuel. Mr. Frederickson never gets left, so he is now filling his customers' orders with ice bought in large quantities from Fort Pierce.

Capt. Henderson of the Emily B. was in port Wednesday with a cargo of much needed gasoline.

Wm. Go- can was up from Palm Beach Wednesday where he and S. Sorenson are preparing to go back into the Everglades to hunt. They rowed all the way from Jensen to Palm Beach in a small skiff so as to get next to the game.
